CROWDS GREET ROOSEVELT:

RAIN DID NOT DAMPEN THE ARDOR OF UP-STATE REPUBLICANS.

The Governor Talks About the Mob Violence at Elmira and Says It Is but the Natural Result of Bryanism—He Warns Croker That if His Incitement to Riot Should Bear Fruit He Would Be an Accessory Before the Fact-Big Meetings in Rochester.

ROCHESTER, Oct. 30 -On the Erie tracks In the Elmira station this morning rested three trains One of them had on it Gov. Roosevelt and the accompanying spellbinders who are helping him stir up the Republican voters to do their duty In another was the Hon Mr Metcalf. the candidate of the Prohibitionists for Vice-President. While these two were standing peaceably side by side, a third train rumbled by carrying the Hon. William J. Bryan, the cheerless leader. Folks in the other two trains rather braced themselves when the Democratic special went by, but the tracks never

Gov. Roosevelt left Elmira with no high opinion of its police force or of the intelligence or courtesy of its Democratic citizens. Nobody could well help contrasting the difference between the conduct of Mr. Stanchfield's friends in Elmira with the courtesy shown Gov. Roosevelt in Ithaca. The Governor knew that a son of Richard Croker was in Cornell University. On that account he refrained from denouncing Croker to the tremendously interesting audience which stood before him at Ithaca, although he local committee asked him to get after Mr. Croker

To-day the Governor has had reason to be glad that he waited. For the Elmira news-papers brought the news that Mr. Croker had been talking in the way that is characteristic of him when he sees certain defeat ahead.

The Governor read over a report of Mr. Croker's remarks, which read as follows: "My advice to Democratic voters the country over is to congregate about the polling places on the evening of election day, count noses and then if the election returns for Bryan do not tally with their count, to go into the polling places and throw those fellows in charge of the returns into the street."

Governor Roosevelt said: "Mr. Croker seems not to understand that if this incitement to riot and mob violence at the polls should bear fruit, he would be an accessory before the fact. The election laws, like all other laws, apply to Mr. Croker and to every one else, and Mr. Croker and every one else will obey them

The Governor and Senator Laughlin devoted themselves almost altogether at Corning to the treatment the Corning escort club and the Governor himself had received at the hands of some of Mr. Stanchfield's friends in Elmira There was a great number of people on the under a broad expense of umbrellas.

Hardly a face was in sight, but the cheers The Governor said.
"It is perfectly evident that Corning has not been daunted by its reception in Einira last night. It indicates this, that you have got under an unbrella.

"And I think," said the Governor, "that sooner or later our opponents will grow to understand that mob violence is not the way to keep down Republicans. We have a right to appeal not merely to Republicans but to every citizen, who believes in orderly liberty under the law and who is against mob violence in all its forms, to stand with us and not merely next Theesday overthrow Bryanism but stamp it under foot so it shall never rise again. You may have seen in this mornings press despatches that another mob vesterday broke up Senator Depew's meeting at Cobleskill. Mr. Bryan spoke there in the morning and was listened to with entire respect, and then when Depew came there later on in the day they broke up his meeting by violence and refused to listen to him. Your fellow townsmen who have come back to-day, they have not been merely hooted at, they have been maltreated scandalously by a mob which wished to break up the meeting and procession last night. Now, fundamentally, this contest is a contest against just that sort of thing. It is improved to the contest against just that sort of thing. It is improved to the contest against just that sort of thing. It is improved to the contest against just that sort of thing. It is improved to the contest against the contest of the contest against that sort of thing. It is improved to the contest against the rt of thing. It is in to the Kansas Cit possible to live up to the Kansas City platform without exciting just the spirit that was manifested last hight. When Mr Bryan's supporters on the stamp and in the press seek to persuade some of our people that they are being cruelly wronged by others it is simply a provocative to violence. We cannot afford to differ on a question like the tariff, we cannot afford to differ on the questions of law and order, of the right of peaceable speech, the right of processions in a political ountry."

"We'll fix them next week!" shouted a voice.
"It is an outrage," said the Governor, "that ny party should so arouse and inflame a spirit ke that which was manifested last evening."
Former Senator John Laushlin said. "The load of our metry say who were assumed so blood of your martyrs, who were assaulted so grievously at Elmira last night, will be avenged at the polls next Tuesday. The men who made the assault were no more to blame for it than their candidate for President, because he is their candidate for President, because he is inviting men constantly to just such actions by his demagogical appeals to the passions and prejudices of the people. I beg of you to see to it that no violence is permitted at any Democratic meeting. Wait antil near Theodor. Then the voters of this city and virinity on avenge with their ballots the criminal conduct of people living at the home of the Democratic candidate for Governor. The rain was stin pour in down at Bath. But a great number of men from the Soldiers' Home came down to the train and the Governor thanked then cordinity for exposing themselves to such weather, though he added that it was no new thing for them to expose themselves to hardships in a cause that they deemed essential for their country's good. An engineer who approached the meeting on a side track with his locametive was so overcome with his emotions that he turned his whistle loose and nearly broke up the speechmaking.

"His heart is with us," remarked the Governor at the first hill, "but I wish he would give me a show."

rate."
"Hooray for Billy Bryan!" whooped a man on a barrel on the outskirts of the crowd, and, swaying will by fell off the barrel, grasping broadly at the air.

Congressman James We'Wadsworth came down to the Genesee station with a clean-cut, straight backed body of Rough Riders behind him. Their khald suits were all sopping wer, but they velled, as their keeping warm depended "Prosperity," said the Governor, "is like the blessed rain from Henven; it falls on the just and the united. It is falling on the just here now, but it is falling on the united here now, but it is falling on the united sheet in the State, for Mr. Bryan is still with us."

The train passed through Rochester with a cheer from the passengers and traitmen assembled in the station, and went on its way to canandaigate and Penn Yan. At all these places there were mosting, that were as large as though there were no rain falling. On the way back from Penn Yan the engine was stalled and nearly tore up the tracks in the effort to make headway. A rumor was spread abroad in the during cut that the Bryanites had greased the tracks, but it was at last found out that the engineer and fromen had become so engrossed in a political discussion that they had let the fire go out and the steam run down. The train entered Röchester an hour and a half lat.

"There has been much talk," he said, "and, I fear, by no means sincere talk, on the part of our antagen six recently to the effect that the young man has little chance in America. Well, gentlemen, most of us here in this meeting are of middle age, and when this is the case it may be set down as certain that we are deeply concerned as to the future welfare of our sois. I ask every father here to answer to himself the cuestion whether he would prefer his boy to start in life with the prospect of Pryanism ahead of him or with the prospect of the continuance of such redicines as these inaugurated by President McKinley and represented in this State by Mr Odell. Merely to put the question in that way is enough to show the absurdity of the claim made by our opponents. It is a mere axiom that a young man's chances are best in a community where there is general prosperity. It is equally an axiom that at a time of great business depression, or in a country where business depression is normal, a young man's chances are at a minimum. As a matter of fact, there is no other country in the world to-day which begins to offer the chances to young men that America offers. The very combinations of corporate wealth, of which such bitter and in some cases such just compolate is toade, have at their heads men who, in ninety-nine cases out of a hundred, started as young men with little but their own energy and brains to help them.

NO CAMPAIGN FUNDS FOR O'BRIEN The State Committeeman's District Can Get No Money From Croker.

BINGHAMTON, N. Y., Oct. 30. - Democratic State Committeeman Charles F. O'Brien today made the discouraging announcement to the rank and file of Democracy that no campaign funds had been issued or in his opinion would be issued to the Democrats in this district, composed of Broome, Tioga, Delaware and Chenango counties. The Democrats have been trying to arrange a meeting, but Senator Hill, who was announced to speak, said he could not come. negotiations were entered into with Mr. Coler, but these were declared off. It was found that all the halls and public places in the city had been hired by the Republicans from now until election and the plan to have a meeting was abandoned. When Committeeman O'Brien was asked if it was true that no money would be sent into districts that supported Coler, he said he could speak of nothing excepting his own district, which has been tabooed financially. Democratic workers are highly indignant, declaring that Croker is endeavoring to "punish" them and that Tammany heclers throughout the State will be the only ones to get the money or be allowed to succeed in campaign work.

M'KINLEY'S WORDS APPLAUDED.

Labor and Capital. CANTON, Ohio, Oct. 30 .- President McKinley devoted this evening to the principals and teachers of the Canton public schools, meeting hem at the home of Superintendent of Instruction A. O. Wright. He was accompanied by Judge Day and Secretary Cortelyou.

Judge and Mrs. Day accompanied the President and Mrs. McKinley on their drive to-day During the drive the attention of the party was attracted by the clubhouse built by George Laughlin and his mother at a cost of $20,000 for the employees of the company of which Mr. Laughlin is President. So Mr. McKinley and Judge Day got out and visited it.

The President's letter to the Republican needing at Alliance last night has been received with enthusiasm in various parts of the country, and to-day there was a flood of telegrams to the President congratulating him on the sentiments expressed in it-notably the sentence American labor and capital working hand n hand are of mutual advantage, and in friendly in hand are of mutual advantage, and in friendly cooperation will secure industrial triumpis as yet unknown. I have no sympathy with those teachings which incite envy and hatred among our people and would divide them into hostile carrys. May this great meeting stamp with its disapproval the wicked doctrine of class distinction, which has no place in our free government, and mark a distinct advance in good relations between employer and employed.

spects to the President. In an interview he said:

"The Republicans will go to Cook county with 75,000 of a majority for McKinley and Roosevelt, and it is believed by the best informed men in Cook county that the county will give the Republican candidates at least 25,000, making the total majority in Illinois 100,000 for the Republican national ticket. We will elect without question Judge Yates for Governor. We feel confident of the return of a Republican United States Senator and that Senator Cullom will be his own successor."

BRYAN MAN'S APPALLING SECRET. Mr. Washburn of Boston Makes Disclosures About a Military Syndicate.

BOSTON, Oct. 30.-President Washburn of the Bryan Club has at last revealed the secret which he said would "appail humanity when made public." His disclosures are to the effect that when the war with Spain began a military syndicate was created which sidetracked the three most popular men who merited and might justly have aspired to the Presidency,"

Gen Miles, Gen. Lee and Col. Bryan. He declares that men of mediocre ability were selected to prosecute the war. In particular he says that in the Porto Rican campaign an attempt was made by this military syndicate to have

Gen. Miles could march his troops to it and

Mr. Croker has instructed the said all the Tammany leaders to have as many Bryan banners displayed along the route of merch as Tammany leaders had under consideration a plan for introducing a large body of their dependents and supporters in the line of murch with instructions to fall out before the reviewing stands were reached and endeavor to demoralize the rest of the paraders. The marshals of the parade have been notified of this plan; they do not believe it will be successful, and they intend to use every means in their power to prevent it being carried out.

Mr. Croker's perturbation over the parade was shown last night at the Democratic Club. In speaking of the coming demonstration he said that about everybody who would take part in it would do so under coercion, and that he had information that men were being imported from nearby States to march in it for pay. In concluding his remarks he said: "We are going to have thirty-six demonstrations on that same night, and every one will be genuine. We have no trusts to club our people into line, we force nobody to come, and yet I venture to say that at our thirty-six meetings. there will be more voters than there will be in the fake McKinley parade."

Since it became known that the ground of prosecution will rest on the poisoning of Jennie Bosschieter more than anything else the friends of George J. Kerr have taken heart. It is now said that his plea will be that he was not present when the girl was drugged and was entirely innocent of it. Kerr went to the Erie depot to get a hack, while McAlister, Campbell and Death remained with the girl in Saal's saloon and drugged her. This plea is not likely to do Kerr any good, as the case will not rest entirely on the poisoning. According to the verdict of the Coroner's jury, the girl came to her death 'from exposure, violent assault and a poisonous drug.'

It may be very difficult to establish the presence of chloral in the system. It has been learned that the body was embalmed the day after it was found. The embalming fluid was in the body for over three days before the organs were removed on Tuesday by County Physician caught, but was allowed to go after being examrented the room thirty days before election day; but the Tammany men in the Eighth regard him as a carpetbagger and do not like to have their district turned into a pooket borough. Mr. Riordan, the popular young man who was turned down by Mr. Croker to make a place for Mr. Creamer, the carpetbagger, has always lived in the district, as did his father before him. The result has been that there is no enthusiasm among Tammany workers for Mr. Creamer, and they have put very little heart into their work for him. The Republican candidate for Congress in this district is Richard Van Cott. He lives in the district and always has lived there. He is a young man and is very popular. The contract between him and Mr. Creamer, the carpetbagger, in the minds of Tammany voters in the district has resulted in the declaration by many of them that they will vote for Mr. Van Cott, whose address they know, in preference to a man the location of whose home they cannot learn. Mr. Creamer is doing his utmost to popularize himself in the district. So far his efforts have not met with success enough to warrant him in believing that he could be elected. were removed on Tuesday by County Physician McBride.

The fourth round of the masters' tournament at the Manhattan Chess Club was begun last evening with the following pairing: Showalter vs. Hodges, Marshall vs. Baird and Hymes vs. Lipschuetz. Showalter relied upon the Spanish Attack in the opening, Marshall tried a Queen's Gambit lead, which was declined by Baird, and Lipschuetz adopted a Siellian Defence. Marshall won his game in fine style, while the other two were in critical positions at a late hour.

Matty Matthews Gets Decision Over Charley Burns.

CHICAGO, Oct. 80 -A great crowd of fight lovers gathered at Tattersalls to-night to see Tommy White and Kid Broad in a six-round "go," but they were disappointed. The star bout of the evening was to have been between Eddie Santry and Kid Broad, but Santry, while indulging in practice on Monday night threw his kneecap out. Tommy White was asked to go on, and promised to do so, but when the bout was called to-night he declined to enter the ring on the ground that he had had no time to get ready. The results of the bouts follow:

Eugene McGovern knocked Tommy Dixon out in the third round; Clarence Forbes beat Walter Bloom in six rounds; "Turkey Point" Smith beat Archie Brown in six rounds: Harry Harris beat McFadden in six rounds: "Klondyke" and Jim Bradley drew; Matty Matthews got the decision over Charley Burns in six rounds; George Byers got the decision over Tim Murphy in six rounds.
